

Introduction to International Relations–Term A

Instructor: Clara Park

Course Number: 2223

Description: Introduces the field of international relations, with general survey of the theories, histories, and problems of historical and contemporary relations among state and nonstate actors.
No prerequisites required.

