

The Environment and Public Policy–Term B

Instructor: Michelle Benedum

Course Number: 3206

Description: Considers constitutional, political, and geographic factors in development of public policy affecting the use of natural resources and management of the environment; organization, procedures, and programs for use of natural resources; and administration of environmental policies.

Recommended prerequisite: PSCI 1101 or PSCI 2012.

